I. III. Liturgy of the Eucharist (cont'd) This part corresponds to the words and actions of Christ at the Last Supper. Christ took bread, and, giving thanks, he said the blessing, broke the bread and gave it to his disciples, saying: “Take this, all of you, and eat of it, for this is my body, which will be given up for you.” Christ took the chalice and, once more giving thanks, he gave it to his disciples, saying: “Take this, all of you, and drink from it, for this is the chalice of my blood, the Blood of the new and eternal covenant, which will be poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins do this in memory of me.” Through the breaking of the one bread and through communion, the faithful though they are many, receive from the one bread the Lord’s Body and from the one chalice the Lord’s Blood in the same way the Apostles received them from Christ’s own hands.	C.
